Johansen Individualised Auditory Stimulation (JIAS) Sound Therapy Provider

TRAINING COURSE

22nd September to 25th September, 2017
Melbourne, Australia
The Quest Apartments – 741 to 745 Whitehorse Road, Mont Albert

Glynis Brummer, Director of Smart Learning Solutions Ltd and National Director of JIAS Sound Therapy in New Zealand, is coming to Melbourne, Australia to run this 4 day training course.

Johansen IAS is the only auditory stimulation programme which uses CD’s customized to the individual’s own hearing curve to organise and enhance auditory processing skills.

Children and adults with dyslexia, dyspraxia, ADHD, speech and language difficulties and autistic spectrum disorders may have inefficient auditory processing. The effectiveness of teaching and therapy can be greatly increased if these skills are improved.

This course will cover:

- Background Theory behind Johansen IAS
- Laterality and Auditory Laterality
- Pure Tone Listening Audiometry as a Diagnostic Tool
- Further Diagnostic Assessments
- Development of JIAS and the CD’s used.
- Planning and Implementing an Individual Programme

Training Cost: $945.00 (4 days of training & practitioner registration fee)
Includes training manual and morning and afternoon teas.

Audiometer Cost: AUD$1,500

Venue: The Quest Apartments 741 to 745 Whitehorse Road, Mont Albert
